SCORE / 25

- Answer every question in the space provided.
- Read both texts once, properly, before you answer anything. The last two questions need both.
- Answer only from the lines the question names. A perfect answer from the wrong lines scores nothing.
- When a question asks for two things, give two separate ideas. One idea written twice is one mark.
- Pay attention to punctuation and spelling. The number of marks is shown in brackets [] on the right.
- One of the two texts on this paper is not a story. You have not been taught that text type — apply the ideas you already have.
- No framework is printed on this paper. Remembering the three rungs is part of what it is testing.

Text A — Three weeks after his grandfather's funeral, Ravi's family spend a Saturday emptying the house in Mylapore.

- 3 The house is full of people being efficient. Ravi's mother has a system and the system
4 involves three piles, and the piles have acquired the names Keep, Give and Ask Chithi,
5 which is where things go when nobody wants to decide.
- 6 Ravi has been given the shelf in the back room, which everyone agrees is the easy one,
7 because it is only books.
- 8 It is not only books. It is books with things inside them. A bus ticket at page ninety 9 of a book about bridges. A photograph of nobody Ravi recognises, standing in front of 10 this house when the gate was a different gate. Four rupees in an envelope marked, in 11 handwriting he knows, FOR THE BOY.
- 12 He does not ask which boy. There are two possible answers and he only wants one of 13 them.
- 14 In the front room somebody laughs at something, and then stops laughing in the 15 particular way people do in a house like this, as if laughing had been issued to them
16 by mistake and they are handing it back.
- 17 'Ravi,' his mother calls. 'Books done?'
- 18 'Nearly.'
- 19 He has done nine. There are about four hundred.
- 20 At one o'clock a neighbour comes with rice and a tiffin carrier and stands in the 21 doorway saying the same four sentences to everybody in turn, which is what she is 22 there to do and everybody knows it and it helps.

23 The almirah in the back room is locked and the key is not in the house. Ravi's uncle
24 says they will force it next Saturday. Ravi says nothing, because he would like there
25 to be a next Saturday, and the almirah is the reason there has to be one.

26 By evening the piles have won. The house looks like a house that anybody could have
27 lived in, which Ravi had not known was a thing that could be done to a room in one
28 day.

29 He takes the envelope. He does not take the four rupees out of it.

Text B — The following advertisement appeared in a Chennai newspaper the following month.

31 MYLAPORE — INDEPENDENT HOUSE — 2,400 SQ FT

32 A rare opportunity to acquire a well-located independent property in one of the city's
33 most established residential neighbourhoods. Built 1968 and held by the same family
34 since construction, the property is offered with vacant possession and clear title.

35 The accommodation comprises four bedrooms, a large front room and a rear room
36 currently used for storage, together with an original almirah and fittings. The 37 structure is sound throughout, although the interiors are dated and the property would 38 benefit from comprehensive modernisation.

39 Given the plot dimensions and the current zoning, there is considerable scope for 40 redevelopment, and the site may be of particular interest to builders.

41 Viewing strictly by appointment. Price on application.

42 Contact: Sundaram Estates, Luz Corner.

SECTION A — READING

1. Look at lines 8-13.

- (a) The adults thought this shelf was the easy job. Give two things Ravi finds that [2] show it is not.

- (b) What does There are two possible answers and he only wants one of them suggest about Ravi? Tick (✓) one box. [1]

He does not much care who the envelope was meant for

He would rather not find out that it was not meant for him

He has forgotten that he has cousins

He intends to keep the money whatever the answer is

2. Look at lines 14-19.

- (a) Give the one word Ravi says that hides how little he has actually done. [1]

- (b) Give one word from lines 14-16 that means 'handed out officially'. [1]

3. Look at lines 23-25. Give two things that show Ravi wants the clearing of the house to take longer. [2]

SECTION B – QUOTATION AND EXPLANATION

4. Look at lines 26-29. Which of these opinions do you agree with most? Tick (✓) one box, then give two quotations that support the opinion you chose, and explain how each one supports it.

Ravi takes the envelope because of the money inside it.

Ravi takes the envelope because of the handwriting on it.

SECTION C – THE WHOLE TEXT

6. Look at lines 37-40.

(a) Give one word that means 'old-fashioned and in need of updating'.

[1]

(b) What does may be of particular interest to builders tell the reader about what is likely to happen to the house?

[1]

7. What does offered with vacant possession (line 34) mean? Tick (✓) one box. [1]

The house has been emptied of furniture

Nobody is living there, so a buyer can take it over at once

The house has stood abandoned for several years

There is a vacancy for a caretaker at the property

8. Look at Text B. What features of its language show that it is written to sell rather than to describe accurately? Give two features. [2]

SECTION D – MARKING SOMEBODY ELSE

9. Look at the whole text.

- (a) The same room and the same piece of furniture appear in both texts. Choose one of them, and explain what it means in each text. [2]

- (b) Another student has written the two answers below. For each, say what is wrong with it. Then rewrite one of them properly. [3]

Answer 1. 'A rare opportunity to acquire a well-located independent property in one of the city's most established residential neighbourhoods.' This shows the advertisement is trying to sell the house.

Answer 2. This shows that Ravi is sad.

End of paper. Before you hand it in, check every explanation names a word from inside your own quotation. That is the mark most often left behind on a paper like this.
